

RB-Spa-977

Curved Tweezers ESD Safe

You can tell by our large assortment of tweezers that here at are way into picking up tiny things. To make sure always up to date on the latest in 'tweezing' technology, always buying and testing new tweezers. Okay tweezers aren't exactly the most exciting thing in the world, but they are super handy.

These are nice, solid curved tweezers. They have a very fine tip which allows you to pick up very small parts with precision. This is a great tool to have if you're working with surface mount components or anything with very small parts. The ESD-safe coating will also help prevent electro-static damage to sensitive electronic components. It bright red and have the SparkFun logo printed right on them.